

If you are a student with a documented disability in this course, please register with Pam Rose, Director of the Learning Center. The Learning Center is located in the Rubbermaid Student Services Building ext. 2595) and is the office that will assist you in developing a plan to address your academic needs.